

Hello dear parent.

I know you are likely at your wits end, scrambling for support and flailing, not understanding your child's behavior and not know what to do about it.

Without the right intervention, your child is often one step away from more intensive treatments like residential programs, polypharmacy, or inpatient hospitalization, which without deep healing of the entire family system seldom leads to sustainable outcomes.

In the last five years, I have discovered remarkable reversals in child mental illness through parental attunement training.

I'm here to tell you that sustainable life-long healing is entirely possible for you and your family. Because when a family is ready to heal, sustainable and life-long results are inevitable. Thank you for choosing to heal. Thank you for choosing your power.

With love, gratitude, and attunement,

Dr. Blickstein

Transform your family 12 weeks with transformational child psychiatrist, mental health thought leader and innovator and multi-dimensional energy healer, Dr. Adena Blickstein.

What Problems Are addressed

- Hyperactivity
- Screen addiction
- Oppositional behavior
- Psychosis
- Substance use and abuse
- Sociopathic and narcissistic traits
- Suicidal tendencies
- Eating disorders
- Aggressive and explosive behaviors

Kelly Viera, Mom

Adena's program has changed my life so much! My relationship with my daughter went from a constant fight to us being able to collaborate and understand each other. She even wants to spend time with me! The perspectives and tools made this possible and I will be forever grateful! - Kelly

Kayla Yoder, Mom

Teal Dragon's attunement training has completely transformed my relationship... What I learned through attunement training showed me how to be the kind of mother I want to be. By learning how to attune to him, we have so much more fun together, and I feel so much less anxious and worried about him.
